ApologetiX: Future Tense

SRP $12.99 UPC 651968001624

"No one rewrites mainstream rock lyrics with more humor and prophetic insight than ApologetiX. From Boston to the Beatles, from Fall Out Boy to The Fray, Future Tense impersonates diverse musical voices to deliver poignant social commentary."

—Focus on the Family's Plugged In Magazine

"ApologetiX, 'that Christian parody band', has been practicing their form of satire for over a decade and their latest release, Future Tense, shows their continuing expertise as practitioners of the art form. It goes without saying that the better executed the parody the more successful the satire. On this count, chief lyricist and front man J. Jackson delivers the goods: biblical truth and social commentary that can run the gamut from subtly witty to scathingly wry. The lyrics of Future Tense are both perceptive and cheeky without being offensive or flippant."

With a style that is filled with industrial rock sound, inspiring vocal imaging, and a powerful, dramatic presence, this album is set to make a dominant stand in the marketplace. Eowyn's honest writing style and hypnotic voice were enhanced by the addition of Pillar members who were involved in the writing process, as well as, playing on the album.
